Why are you receiving this fine from e-TOL?

You were required to pay a toll for using the A24 motorway in the Netherlands. You did not pay the e-TOL payment reminder on time.

Information about e-TOL

You can see a photo of your vehicle on the toll road and read more information at e-tol.nl.

Automatic toll payment

If you travel along the A24 motorway in the Netherlands frequently and want to avoid a fine in the future, you can choose to pay the toll automatically.

You can set up automatic payments at e-tol.nl/convenience.

Objection to e-TOL fine

You can submit an objection online via e-tol.nl/objection.

Why has the CJIB sent you this letter?

The CJIB is part of the Ministry of Justice and Security in the Netherlands. One of our responsibilities is to collect various types of fines.

Making an objection

If you do not agree with the decision in this letter, you can submit an objection on the basis of the General Administrative Law Act (Algemene Wet Bestuursrecht). You must submit your objection within 6 weeks after the date at the top of this letter. In your objection you should explain why you do not agree with this decision. You should write your objection in Dutch. If we receive an objection in another language, we may ask you for a translation.

Online

You can submit an objection online via e-tol.nl/objection. There you can also read more information on how to object and see a photo of your vehicle on the toll road.

By post

If you would prefer to write a letter, you should send your objection to:

De Minister van Infrastructuur en Waterstaat
t.a.v. de afdeling JBZ van de RDW
Postbus 85
9640 AB Veendam, the Netherlands

Your objection must include, and be accompanied by, at least the following:

- The date, your name, address and signature.
- The decision you are objecting to (please enclose a copy of the decision letter, or the letter's reference number).
- The reason why you do not agree with the decision.
- Documents relating to the objection (for example photos, letters or notes).

If you would like to provide a verbal explanation of why you disagree with the decision, please state this in your objection. You should do so within 6 weeks after the date at the top of this letter. Please also include your telephone number in your objection.
